Jasmine Justice was born in 1972 in West Virginia. As a child she moved to Wyoming, Idaho, and Washington State and has also lived in Helsinki and Istanbul. She received a BFA in printmaking, from the University of Washington1997. Eventually she moved to New York and worked as a printmaker. In 2003, she received her MFA from Mason Gross School of the Arts at Rutgers University. She has attended residencies at Painting's Edge, Idyllwild, California in 2003 and 2006, and at the Atlantic Center for the Arts, in New Smyrna Beach, Florida, in 2006. In 2007 Justice had a solo exhibition in New York at Cue Art Foundation, and has recently been included in group exhibitions at Galerie Kienzle & Gmeiner, in Berlin, 65GRAND in Chicago and High Energy Constructs in Los Angeles. She has also shown at The Riverside Art Museum in Riverside, California, and ZieherSmith gallery in New York.